The other day the Count de Penanel left Lisbon for Paris, carrying an order for 70,000 francs. This he lost on the road, and telegraphed to his banker in Lisbon. That gentleman telegraphed to Paris, stopping pay-ment of the order, but sent by post the portrait of the Count, stating that the amount might be paid to him when he presented himself

Passports in the name of the King of Italy have obtained the Prussian vise both at Berlin and Turin, but the Prussian government before granting it, declared that its sole object was to facilitate commercial relations, and that it did not mean thereby to recognize the new title of King Victor Emanuel.

It is intended to apply for permission to erect a statue of the late Sir Charles Barry in the new Houses of Parliament, with some appropriate motto in the sense of that on Wren's monument—"Circumspice!" A statute of Turner, the painter, is also proposed to be placed in St. Paul's Cathedral.

Thirty-seven more Mormons, of whom no dess than 25 were women, left London on the 22nd May, for Utah, on the Salt Lake, eia Liverpool, to join the "brethren" who preceded them a few days since. They were collected chiefly from Hertfordshire, in which county converts to the doctrines of the Latter-Day-Saints are said to have been very numerous of late. very numerous of late.

The great sensation of Madrid, at present, is the ball that was given lately by the Duchess of Medina-Celi in that city. On the occasion referred to there was a special quadrille composed of all the characters in Don Quixote" in costumes copied from the engravings in the grand edition of that work published by the Spanish Academy.

We are in a fair way to learn, now, the mysterious sources of the Nile. From Paris we learn that M. Lejean has started from Khartoum to ascend that river; and Col. Arnaud, who has been engaged on some hydraulic works in Egypt, has declared his intention of undertaking another expedition up the Nile.

A Mass was lately desired, at Paris, by some Polish refugees, for the repose of the souls of the victims at Warsaw. It was to be celebrated at Notre Dame on the 22nd; but the Cardinal Archbishop of Paris, from political considerations, declined to consent. In the Church of the Battignolles, a low mass was however, celebrated by a Polish mass was, however, celebrated by a priest.

At Berlin the rats have become so numerthat they are a terrible nuisance. They lermine the soil, infest the canals and undermine the soil, infest the canals and sewers, and in certain streets appear in bands in open day. The police authorities are taking measures to destroy these vermin.

Father Gavazzi's Sunday evening meetings, at Rome, a sort of semi-religious, semi-political reunions, at which most of the English attend, besides a numerous Italian audience, have attracted the notice of the police, who have warned the Rev. gentleman that the law does not choose to permit any political. that the law does not choose to permit any political controversy to be mingled with preaching.

There is a very current rumor of an approaching abdication of the King of Denmark, Frederick VII., in favor of the hereditary Prince Christian, and his early departure for Algeria. After witnessing at the Gymnase, the performance of the "Genillhomme Pauvre," Louis Napoleon sent to each of the authors, a gold snuffbox set with diamonds, accompanied by a letter.

They say the late King of Prussia has left the manuscript of an important work, enti-tled "History of the Evangelical Church and of its developments," and that Prolessor Richter is charged to publish it.

The sale of the furniture, &c., at the Road Hill House, where the mysterious murder of the child occurred, our readers will remem-ber, who was taken out of his bed at night on the 23d inst. Miss C. Kent's bedstead and bed were especially alluded to by the presiding knight, and the amount of their worth was obtained—no more. The auctioneer's voice, when the biddings were low, would encourage his hearers to the purchase by a reminder that! this was a relic of Road

The murder of William Horsely, at Carlisle, by his mother-in-law, Jane Davidson, and her suicide, has created some excitement. She, although having a hucband, kept up a clandestine intercourse with her deceased daughter's husband, and, growing jealous, killed him as well as herself Mrs. Davidson had kept the King of Prussia Inn, at Penrith, before she came to Carisle at Candlemas hast, and William Horsley boarded there with his wife till she died, as was said, of bronchitis. Horsley subsequently came to a draper's shop in Carlisle, and went over to Penrith occasionally to visit his motherin-law, who came to Carlisle to the Packhorse Inn at Candlemass. After that Horsley visited the house almost nightly. Mrs. D. died of the poison she had taken, while the coroner's inquest was sitting on the body of Horsley. long be expected from the pen of Sir R. B. Lytton.

The Boot on the chief Leg.—It must be quite two months now since the Richmond Examiner, the family oracle of R. M. T. Kunter, formerly Senator of the United States, now member by appointment of Jeff Davis' Corps Legislatit, proclaimed to the hungry confederate mercenaries that in sixty days from that date the troops of the South would water their horses in the Hudson, while Davis would levy tribute in Wall street, pay off his invading hosts in Broadway, and feast them in fifth avenue. Up to a late hour last night, however, not one solitary horseman from the South could be seen wending his way along the banks of our classic stream; the heavy bars of bullion slept undisturbed in Wall street; the gay bazarrs of Broadway had been rifled of their splendors only by the gentle hands of fair women; the swamning myriads of soldiers for women; the swamning myriads of soldiers of the company of the street of the master's table, but from the basket of cold vietuals which Biddy, perchance, was unable to refuse even to a lean and hungry Palmetto brave. Failing to come to time on the banks of the Hudson we have sent out an advance guard of fifteen or twenty thousand Manhattanese to see if the blustering foeman could be found on either side of the Potomac. But all that could be discovered of him even there has been the tails of his chargers sweeping Southward, at a 2:40 pace, to take a drink, perhaps, from that other stream on which Richmond itself stands. The chances now seem to be that the horsemen of the Hudson, too, will soon water their steeds in the 'soft flowing James,' and if they do not, as assuredly they will not adopt the chivalric tactics, and ravish the little shops of Richmond, plunder its banks, and feast on the toothsome hoecake in the one-story palaces of its aristocracy, it will be because it is not for plunder to make a gallant and final stand, it is probable that all the rebel heroes in the South will soon drink their ultimate daught in that fervid steam,

THE WAY THE DUTCH FIGHT.—When the Berks county and other interior troops were on their way towards Camp Curtin, Pennsylvania, the officers had a conference over the news of the taking of Fort Sunter, and the fact that, after thirty-six hours of cannonading, no life was lost. One honest Dutch officer could not understand how this could be done; but another officer better posted in modern warfare, assured him that it was all owing to the astonishing improvements in modern science, which had made the art of war so perfect that forts might be battered down and cities be bombarded, and yet not a single individual be killed. The honest Dutch son of Mars listened attentively and in surprise at such remarkable results. Suddenly his face reddened, and with a blow of his fist upon the table, which sounded like the discharge of a Columbiad, he exclaimed in Den, by tam, dey had petter not pring down our Dutchmans, for dey are so tam sthupid mit science, dat day couldn't go into a fight mitout killing somebody."

III Mr. Lincoln "cuts off" the Southern mates, what will become of the Southern females? They have avowed their opposition to a union with their Northern brethren, so we guess they'll all have to turn cotton spinsters.

REBEL PROPERTY .- " Leo," the Washington correspondent of the New York Times, thus speaks of the confiscation of rebel property:

The question as to what shall be done with The question as to what shall be done with the property of rebel leaders is also being discussed, but as yet only incidentally. The Arlington estate belongs to Lee, the rebel commander in Richmond, and is probably the most valuable property in Virginia. Apart from the negroes, it would probably sell for a quarter of a million of dollars. The confiscation and sale of this property would probably do quite as much to restore the eastern part of Virginia to its allegiance to the Government as any act that could be to the Government as any act that could be done, and there seems to be no good reason why it should not be subjected to the laws.

Still another troublesome point to decide is what to do with the "peculiar institution." It was alleged that the negroes of the South would follow their masters to the death. Our experience thus far does not justify this de-claration. There was one negro deserted by his master at Alexandria, and there were twelve left on the Arlington estate. None of them evinced the slightest desire to run after their masters. They are therefore, in a measure, the charge of the Government. It measure, the charge of the Government. It will be readily understood that we cannot be long encumbered with such a charge, and as the masters are flying from the wrath to come, we are likely to have more chattels than it will be possible for us to take care of, if we still profess to hold them in bondage. The Government had no desire to interfere with private property, and will not, but it cannot be expected that the Government will take the place of their owners, when owners abandon their property.

Color of the Eyes.—That the color of the eyes should affect their strength may seem strange; yet that such is the case need not at this time of any to be proved; and those whose eyes are brown or dark colored should be informed that they are weaker and more susceptible of injury, from various causes, than gray or blue eyes. Light blue eyes are generally the most powerful, and next to those are gray. The lighter the pupel the greater and longer-continued is the degree of tension the eye can sustain.

Printing ink will probably be made contra Frinting link will probably be made contra-band of war. There is not a manufactory of the article south of Philadelphia, and the people in the seceded states will be obliged to do without their diurnal journals, if the Government carries out its intention to stop the supply of the "magic compound" of printer's ink.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT—STOMACH AND KIDNEYS.—Between these two organs there exists a close and intimate relation, which is demonstrated by the wasting which occurs in all diseases afflicting the kidneys. The disordered stampolic when the life has been closed irregularities. Holloway's remedies used at that juncture would cut short many a serious and fatal attack. They act with wonderful efficacy on every organ of secretion, but especially do they regulate the stomach, liver, and kidneys in restoring their healthy functions, and existing out any obstructions or impurand casting out any obstructions or impurities. It is necessary for the Ointment to be well rubbed over the affected parts twice daily, when it is absorbed, and much augment the purifying and salutary influence of

A Gold Escort.

The Hispano-American or military treasure escort system, which has been adopted so successfully in Anstralia, is soon to be put in motion in British Columbia. Mr. Treasurer Gosset, after two years agitation, has succeeded in one of his pet hobbies by getting the machinery of a Gold Escort in working order. As we, understand it, the route of the escort will be from New Westminster to the Forks of Quesnelle River, via Port Douglas and Cayoosh. Ex-Justice Elwyn of Cayoosh, will have charge of the route from Cayoosh to the Forks of Quesnelle River, via Port Douglas and Cayoosh established to the Forks of Quesnelle River, via Port Douglas and Cayoosh by the charge of the route from Cayoosh to the Forks of Quesnelle River, via Port Douglas and Cayoosh established to the Forks of Quesnelle River, via Port Douglas and Cayoosh established to the Forks of Quesnelle River, via Port Douglas and Cayoosh established to the Forks of Quesnelle River, via Port Douglas and Cayoosh established to the Forks of Quesnelle River, via Port Douglas and Cayoosh established to the Forks of Quesnelle River, via Port Douglas and Cayoosh established to the Forks of Quesnelle River, via Port Douglas and Cayoosh established to the Forks of Quesnelle River, via Port Douglas and Cayoosh established to the Forks of Quesnelle River, via Port Douglas and Cayoosh established to the Forks of Quesnelle River, via Port Douglas and Cayoosh established to the Forks of Quesnelle River, via Port Douglas and Cayoosh established to the Forks of Quesnelle River, via Port Douglas and Cayoosh established to the Forks of Quesnelle River, via Port Douglas and Cayoosh established to the Forks of Quesnelle River, via Port Douglas and Cayoosh established to the Forks of Quesnelle River, via Port Douglas and Cayoosh established to the Forks of Quesnelle River, via Port Douglas and Cayoosh established to the Forks of Quesnelle River, via Port Douglas and Cayoosh established to the Forks of Quesnelle River, via Port Douglas and Cayoosh established to the Forks of Ques rouse from Cayoosh to the Focks of Quesnelle; and will be accompanied by a sergeant and four soldiers of the Royal Sappers and Miners mounted. The time occupied in going from Cayoosh to the Forks of Quesnelle and back, is estimated at eighteen days on the average. This is considerably longer than desirable; but owing to the state of the trail, and the want of relays of horses on the route, it is held next to impossible to do better this season without incurring a much larger expense than circumstarces will warrant. The escort from Cayoosh to Donglas will be under the charge of Mr. Hankin the court in some measure. Besides, it is and two mounted policemen. The traveling really a liberal custom to allow foreigners to time between those two points is set down at thirty-six hours. Whether Mr. Hankin is to continue on to New Westminster from Douglas or not, or whether the water escort will be given to some one else, we are ot

The rate at which gold will be carried from the Forks of Quesnelle to Cayoosh is said to be one shilling per ounce; and from Cayoosh to New Westminster sixpence per ounce. It is certainly low enough when compared with the distance and the probable amount to be conveyed. It is much lower than any express company could at of aliens to place them on juries. Should points; and we presume the low rate proposed to be adopted has been done with the Act of the Assembly, for neither in such a design of monopolizing the whole carrying case would be worth a straw if they contrade. There are some doubts, however, travened the rights accorded to aliens by whether the government gold escort can compete with express enterprise. If the escort went over the route a little oftener, we have little doubt but that the express companies would have very little chance in competition. Till such time, then, as the escott can make as quick time as the expresses, we fear that the greater confidence inspired as regards the safety of the treasure, will not make up for slow time; and although the risk may be somewhat greater, the saving in time may often be equivalent to the extra expense via express. It is certainly within the power of the governmen to express through as quickly as private parties, and it is hoped that it may be done. The escort cannot but prove a losing institution this year; and the only way in which we see any hopes of making it a paying one next year is by driving off all competition from the route by low rates and quick movements. In time, it cannot but prove a very great accommodation to merchants, as they would have the best security possible in case the treasure was lost; and besides it is not unlikely that the miners will forward considerable of their for Col. Foster moved the adjournment of security possible in case the treasure was gold dust to New Westminster for safe keeping rather than risk it in their cabins or in charge of friends. The tendency, consequently, of forwarding gold dust to New Westminster, will be to increase the business at the assay office there. Doubtless such an object has been kept in view in establishing the escort Aside from the accommodation to merchants and miners, in transmitting their dust at a low rate, and the probable advantage to the government assay office, the gold escort will form a very correct guage of the quantity of gold taken out annually in the mines. The estimate thus obtained will doubtless aid in building up for us a character abroad as a gold producing country; for at present, with the exception of the shipments of Wells, Fargo & Co., there are no means of forming an approximate estimate of the annual amount of gold taken out or exported. If the escort should succeed as its promoters expect, it will soon settle the oft' agitated question as to the advisability of an export duty on gold. At present such a duty is an impossibility, and so far as we can see will continue to be so; still it is within the range of probabilities if the yield of gold should prove to be very large, and the escort become the means of forwarding it, that an exportduty may yet be established.

One of the most favorable features connected with the escort, is the design of sending a letter and newspaper mail by every conveyance. Nothing is more wanted. Letters from the Forks of Quesnelle cost two dollars; and newspapers are worth in the

THE BRITISH COLONIST northern mines a dollar and upwards. Re- NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. garding the escort in a profit and loss light, we believe it will prove considerable loss directly; but the saving in the transmission of gold, letters, and papers will in all prob-ability make it indirectly profitable to the country. At any rate it is an experiment worth a trial. If it should not prove what its promoters imagine it will become, the quicker it is superseded the better. But to make it a really useful institution there ought this year to be a weekly escort between the Forks of Quesnelle and Cayoosh, and next year a semi-weekly or daily. It cannot be very long before private enterprise will put on a weekly or daily line of expresses or passenger trains and coacnes to Cariboo, and except the Gold Escort is equally enterpris ing, it will be a useless institution. Alien Jurors.

of the bar, and which, in fact, mean nothing?
L'D LOWENBERG.

In answer, we would state that the law is clearly against the ruling of Justice Cameron; and if an alien refused respectfully to serve, we are persuaded that, in case he was committed or fined for refusing, he would have a very good case to make an international question out of, or even to appeal to the Privy Council. So far as the "right" to make an alien serve, it is simply a natural one on the motto that "might is right." Necessity may excuse the rule of get on juries. There are very few aliens, if it was a life and death case with them, who would not prefer a jury of their countrymen to try them. And although jury duty may be an irksome duty unsupported by law, still it is one that under the circumstances we do not consider wise to rebel against. Mr. Cary proposes to cure the evil by passing a law to give the Court power to place aliers on juries. But we fear that even such a law might be set aside, if not here, at least on appeal elsewhere. We doubt very much if it would not conflict with the treaty-rights

Wonderful Consistency.

Notwithstanding that one week ago yesterday Mr. Cary pronounced the Assemblymen children if they voted away more money till the Cameronian question was settled yet he yesterday moved a resolution to vote £2000 for the Esquimalt road out of the General Revenue! Wonderful consistency! Inexplicable somersault! Several members were buttered up on both sides, till it was a elear case that he intended to swallow the Cameron fesolutions as a happy feat of legerdemain. Unfortunately for the best invented scheme possible to stultify the Assembly, Mr. Coles suddenly denounced the performance as bogus; and Mr. Burnaby proved too independent to follow the "leader" in a double-shuffle. At this crisis even Dr. Tolmie favored consistency and opposed precipitancy. When lo! the leader, who enquired a week ago whether members were schoolboys, drew in his horns at the rebellious attitude of the scholars and boodebate.

House of Assembly.

MONDAY, July 8, 1861. Monday, July 8, 1861.

House met at 25 minutes to 4 o'clock. Present, Speaker Helmacken, and Messrs. Waddington, McDonald, Southgate, Burnaby, Crease, Coles, Cary, Foster, Gordon, and Tolmie.

Mr. Waddington called attention to the irregularity of meeting.

The Speaker said the Supreme Court had been in session in the same chamber, and that His Lordship had adjourned as soon as he was informed that the House was desirous of sitting.

MOTIONS.

Mr. Burnaby's motion with regard to the old

Mr. Burnaby's motion with regard to the old graveyard was read.

Mr. McDonald's motion inquiring what steps had been taken with regard to the laying out of the Sooke road was also read.

Mr. McDonald's motion inquiring what steps had been taken with regard to the laying out of the Sooke road was also read.

Mr. Foster introduced his bill for the Abolition of Imprisonment for Debt. The bill provides that unfortunate debtors may not be sent to prison; the Chief Justice has power to summon the plaintiff, defendant, and witnesses before him, and if the defendant does not attend without sufficient excuse, or cannot answer questions satisfactory to the Court, or an mtention to defraud is evident, he may be sent to jail.

Mr. Foster said it might be urged that the House was coming too close on to the American principle, but he believed that the adoption of measures which had worked well in a country to which we are so closely allied by commercial and other ties, would have a beneficial effect. He would rather see the unfortunate debtor left to run at large than to become a tax upon the community, when it is known that credit is often given to such persons when there is not the remotest chance of the creditor being paid, except by holding the prison in terrorem over the debtor's head.

Mr. Waddington seconded the bill. It was required by the whole mercantile community, and the present law to toward debtors tends to keep back the Cotony. If this place has a free port, it is not to be supposed that it naturally has a free jail, too. An unfo the nate debtor should be treated kindly, and a dishonest one should be treated kindly.

House in Committee on the message from His Excellency the Governor, asking the House to authorize him to devote £2000 out of the general revenue, for the purpose of making the Esquimalt road; the same to be repaid from the funds accumulating under the £10,000 Loan Bill. Mr. Waddington in the chair.

Mr. Cary said if the road was delayed longer, the road could not be made this year. The improvement will accommodate the people of Esquimalt, and nobody here will lose anything. The general revenue must find the funds to make the road, and the Governor merely asks a portion of the surplus revenue now about to be paid into the Treasury.

malt, and nobody here will lose anything. The general revenue must find the funds to make the road, and the Governor merely asks a portion of the surplus revenue now about to be paid into the Treasury.

The Chairman asked if any answer had been received from the Home Government with regard to the Loan Bill.

Mr. Cary—None whatever.

Mr. Helmcken thought it exceedingly desirable that the road should be completed; but what surplus revenue existed? He had always thought the colony in debt, and, what was worse, there was no probability of an improvement. If money can be taken out to improve the Esquimalt road, why is not the Cowiehan and other roads repaired also? I suppose there are £2000 in the Treasury from the harltor fund, and I cannot see the necessity of us voting any more oney to the improvement. Let the £2000 be used, and we shall save £300 interest by only applying for a loan of £8000 instead of £10,000. The Estimates should be first had on the table before we take a long while for us to get the £2000 asked for back again.

Mr. Cary—By the Act passed last year it is impossible to devote the harbor dues to any other purposes than the Esquimalt road and Victorial Harbor Furd. The money goes to form a fund, and cannot be touched for any other purpose. The surplus revenue arises from the fact that resources of the colony are greater than at first supposed, and money voted by the House for certain purposes has been saved.

Mr. Foster said the House had only to look across the bridge and see the condition of the town. He considered the present state of affairs brought about by the most puerile, fearful publicis that could afflict the mind of man. The policy of the government had been vacillating in the extreme, as far as roads were concerned. The present road interests Victoria much more than Equimalt, which town does not contain half a dozen horses or wagons that run over the road. It is the interest of this town that require the road, and the sonner it is commenced the better. If we cannot make a whole road, Sound have greatly decreased, and the withdrawal of Government troops and money from that quarter have also tended to bring about the present dull state of affairs.

Mr. Tolmie trusted the House would adhere strictly to the resolution passed list week.

Mr. Burnaby, seconded by Mr. Coles, moved that action on the message be deferred until an answer to the resolution of the House of the list instant be returned.

The Chairman doubted the power of the House, under the suspensive bill passed last sess on, to vote one cent towards improving the Esquimalt road until that but was signed by the Home Government.

road until that bit was signed by the Irone (total erinment.

Mr. Helmcken, in alluding to the resolutions passed relating to the Chief Justice, said he was appalled at their wickedness. The House may coademn the Chief Justice without a hearing—may forget that a man under the English law is innocent until he is proved guilty, but homorable members may rest assured that His Excellency will at do so.

The resolutions were highly proper.

lo so. . Coles—The resolutions were highly proper. Mr. Coles—I am not the power, according to the Chief Justice's ruling to pass one bill, I cannot see whence comes its power to pass another.

Mr. Helmeken—Your case is not proven. If one tells at he ne must stick to it.

Mr. Coles—I am not aware, sir, I have told a

Mr. Coles—I am not aware, sir, I have told a lbs.

Mr. Helmcken—I really did not intend my remarks to apply to you.

Mr. Coles—I call the gentleman to order.

The Chairman—I cannot suppose for a moment that the remark was intended to apply to the gentleman from Saanieh.

Mr. Helmcken—Certainly not. To suppose John Coles would tell a lie would be about as sensible as to say that a comet had been seen near the arth in broad deylight.

Janion & Green vs. Holman & Parker. [By Janion & Green vs. Holman & Landel.

Special Jury.]
Mr. Cary (instructed by Mr. Drake) for plaintiffs and Messrs. King and McCreight (instructed by Mr. Pearkes) for defendants.

The plaintiffs in this case claim £1000 for injuries and damage done to certain merchandizo shipped by the brigantine Marcella from the port of London to the port of Victoria. Several witnesses were examined on he part of plaintiff, when the Court, at 3 o'clock, adjourned till 10 o'clock this day, at which time the plaintiffs will proceed with the case.

THE SUPPOSED BURGLAR.-John Johnson, arrested on suspicion of being a burglar, and having entered the New England Bakery on Saturday morning last, and relieved the pockets of a lodger of a small sum of money, was before Mr. Pemberton yesterday. The facts as stated in our paper of yesterday were detailed by witnesses, with the exception that the proprietor of the bakery did not see him in the house, but witnessed him go to the back doors of several of the neighbors, and try to open them. The prisoner told the Court that he was recently from the Whatcom Coal Mines, where he had gathered together about $70, and had lived on it for a month. The Chief of Police stated that the accused came to this port some time ago in a Bremen bark from Hongkong; but that little was known regarding his character. Mr. Pemberton said he considered the circumstances attending the arrest of prisoner very suspicious, and he would therefore remand him to jail for one day; in the meantime, inquiries are to be made as to his general character.

THE "ISLE OF FRANCE."-Considerable controversy exists here just now as to the sailing qualities of the bark Isle of France, the vessel supposed to have our mails aboard Some authorities assert that she is a regular old tub, while others maintain that she is a beautifully modeled clipper. The latest report reaches us from an old salt who came up on the Scranton. He says that she looks as though she was built at a shipyard in Europe where they construct vessels by the HOPS--15 bales English. mile, and then cut them off in lengths to She is now seventeen days out. The FIRE BRICKS ... 5.000 English, suit! mails should have been placed on the Scran- ROOFING SLATES .-- 10,000 Countess, ton or Perkins, whose sailing capabilities are TOBACCO-5000 lbs Virginia Leaf.

well known. ARREST OF DESERTERS .- Yesterday, during the parade at Esquimalt, four marines took advantage of a favorable opportunity to desert. The police were notified, and officer Levy, just before dark, succeeded in finding them near Tuite's milk-ranch, proceeding at a rapid pace towards the interior of the Island. The officer procured the assistance of a citizen armed with a double-barreled shot-gun in which was no load, and heading the fugitives off, compelled them to precede him to the barracks, where they were locked up. The deserters were in uniform, and were armed with bayenets. They will be sent back to the ship to-day.

ATTEMPT AT HIGHWAY ROBBERY .- Man Sing, a Chinaman, while walking towards Esquimalt yesterday, was attacked by four Mr. Southgate looked upon the matter in a mercantile point of view, and could see nothing to be gained by keeping the money that had accumulated lying idle.

Mr. Clease favored the measure. It was highly necessary that communication between Victoria and Esquimalt should be kept up, and the House, in voting to pay this money out, took no risk.

Mr. H. E. Wilby, chancing to pass near by saw the transaction and was proceeding to moving to pay this money out, took no risk.

Mr. H. E. Wilby, chancing to pass near by sow and the distributed the present depression in Victoria not the want of proper roads but to the want of gold mines, and the American civil war. It is well known that since the war in the United States has broken out the exports from Puget Sound have greatly decreased, and the withdrawal of Government troops and money from that quare the control of the woods. Northern braves and dragged into the woods, RUM SHRUB, CHERRY CORDIAL, Rowdies .- Two men, named Eugene Avery (an old offender) and Baptiste Roterier, were arrested by officer Newcomb yesterday afternoon for fase driving and disorderly conduct. They were taken to prison, where they kicked up such a row that the jailors were compelled to place them in irons and gag Roterier.

ROBBERY .- Two Fort Rupert Indians yesterday entered the house of a colored man named Bond, on Quadra street, and commenced to clean out the establishment. They were observed by a passer by and introduced to luxurious quarters in a whitewashed cell at the barracks.

Correction .- In Mr. Shirpser's statement of a trip of the coast, given yesterday by us, we stated that the Hudson Bay Company or its employees had taken up land at the head of Bute Inlet. It should have read "have taken up land at the head of South Bentinek Arm."

PARADE.—The marines and sailors of the flag-ship Bachante yesterday paraded and drilled ashere.

ORDERS .- The orders from British Columbia by the Otter on Saturday evening were not heavy and the indications are that the steamer will have but an average freight tonight. Up-country men are very evidently guarding against contingencies. The truth is, a large proportion of the goods sold to Caribooites have been disposed of on credit, and there seems to be a general desire manifested for a settlement before further orders are fi.led.

THE LOST WHEEL.—The accident to the steamer Gov. Douglas, whereby she lost her wheel, will prevent that boat from taking her place on the line for some weeks at least The shaft will be sent to San Francisco for repairs, or a new one will be ordered. The wheel escaped without damage. The Col. Moody will run in place of the crippled steamer for the remainder of the season.

DISCHARGED .- Conrad Emrick, arrested on suspicion of stealing $70 from an Indian at Carroll's farm, last week, was yesterday discharged in the Police Court, no person appearing to prosecute.

THE "PACIFIC."—This steamer probably left San Francisco for this port yesterday afternoon, and may be expected on Sunday or Monday next.

IT It was reported last evening that the dead body of a squaw, minus the head, had been picked up in the woods near the Rough and Ready House, on the Esquimalt road. Doubtless another horrible murder.

THE "OTTER."-The s'eamer Otter will leave for New Westminster at 8 o'clock this morning, carrying freight and passengers.

COLONIAL SECRETARY'S OFFICE.
4th July, 1861.

The following important notice to Mariners. com municated to this Governme t by the Naval nander-in-Chief, is hereby published for general in-ormation.

By command of His Excellency the Governor.

WILLIAM A. G. YOUNG. NOTICE TO MARINERS.

Arock has been recently discovered in Houston channel, by H. M. gunboat Grappler. It lies about one quarter of a mile from the N. W. side of Admiral Island;—is about a cable's length in extent, and nearly uncovers at very low tides. From the south end of the rock, Point Southey (the north point of Admiral Island) bears N. N. E., 51 E. White Spit (N. E. point of Kuper Island) bears N. W. T. MAITLAND, Rear Admiral and Commander-in-Chief.

Bitters.—No medicine has ever achieved a higher reputation. In every section of the country is merits are known and fully acknowledged. The leading physicians in the country have extressed their warm approval of this preparation, as uniting all the best qualities of a tome and invigorator, without kindling an appetite for alcoholic liquors. In cases of diseases of the digestive organs, to which all unacclinated persons are from necessity, exposed, as the properties cannot at all thress be had, the Butters will be found to be the quickest corrective and most reliable remedy yet diseavered. Greeleys' Bourbon Bitters.

THEE POPULA BRITY OF THESE BITters is justly due to the purity of the materials of which they are prepared, and the delicate combination of simple alteratives andetonies so well calculated to act upon every part of the digestive organs, and through them to reach and cure all complaints arising from a diseased condition of the Stomach and Bowels.

GREELEYS BOURBON WHISKEY BITTERS are highly nourishing and fattening and as a Tonic for old people, delicate ladies, consumptive patients, and all weakly persons, they cannot be surpassed. In all cases of Weakness or Debility, they will give immediate relief, and impart a strong, healthy tone to the system. For the cure of Dyspensia, Indigestion, Nervous Discases, Liver Complaints, Weakness or Debility, Flatulency and Nausea, and all complaints consequent upon a disordered state of the Stomach, Liver and Bowels, they are not equaled. As an agreeable stomachae, they are much admired; they sharpen the appetite, brighten the intellect, and infuse new life and vigor. No one who uses these Bitters can be subject to an attack of Fever and Ague or Diarrhoa Put up in Quart Bottles, in cases of one and two dozen, and for sale by Druggists, Grocers and Liquor Merchants everywhere.

A Cure for Fries and Fishtlas.

Inflammation by sensitive parts, piles, fishulas, and such like painful diseases may be presently relieved, and ultimately cured, by the proper and diligent use of this cooling and healing (lintment, whose action should in such cases, be assisted by Judicious doses of Filis: ere many days have elapsed the anxious patient will experience a wonderful degree of case from this treatment. They are equally suitable to both sexes, and ail ages.

sexes, and ail ages.

Coughs, Colds, and Asthma.

These complaints of the chest come on with alarming frequency. The oliment should assiduously be rubbed at least twice a day on the chest and between the shoulders, when the vioence of all symptoms will gradually give way, the breathing become longer, and the oppression less. No medicines are more efficient in chest complaints, none can be used with equal safety and certainty. Both Pills and Oliment are accompanied by very clear and simple directions for using them.

A Man who refused to have his Leg off.

A Man who refused to have his Leg off.

"From the Kibrush Advertiser, June 2nd, 1860."

IBNJAMIN COX, Esquire, Magistrate, said in the Board Room at Kibrush, that he knew a man who had been in the Infirmary and was actually turned out as incurable, on his way home to Kibrush, he purchased at Ennis, Holloway's Fills and Ointment, for, as he said, it could not be worse with him. This man, said Mr. Cox, became by their use as sound and as healthy as any man in the room. These celebrated Fills and Ointment will cure any wound, sore, or ul

Gout and Rheumatism.

cer, however long standing, if properly used according to the printed directions.

Gout and Rheumatism.

The essence of these diseases lie in the blood, which has, floating through each vessel, the pain-giving poison, which irritates and inflames every tissue it comes in contact with and produces the hot, swollen, elastic enlargement about the joints so characteristic of gouty diseases. The philosophy of cure consists in overcoming this depravity in the blood, which has pidly purified by the use of the Pills. The Ohnement, when rubbed upon the skin, penetrates the system through the pores, acts in unison with the Pills, and soon effects a cure.

Dropsy, Swollen Legs or Ankles.

The various kinds of dropsies, whether windy or watery, arise from some obstruction to the free circulation though the blood vessels or lymphatics, or depend on the inflamed state of some secreting surface. Holloway's remedies, of which the efficacy cannot be exaggerated, act directly upon the blood, the absorbents and secretions, with a power that no dropsy however inveterate, can long resist. They regulate the proper flow of blood to every organ, and purify it likewise,—they filter out everything that is morbid or injurious.—they ther out everything that is morbid or injurious.—they the roughly regenerate every function, yet potent as they are for good, they are powerless for evil. They do not contain mercury or any noxious substances. They act safely and certainly.

Bad Legs, Bad Breasts, and Old Ulcers.

noxious substances. They act salely and certainly.

Bad Legs, Bad Breasts, and Old Ulcers.

This invaluable Ointment was never known to fail in the cure of any wound, any sore, or any ulcer—as can be proved by innumerable testimonials from persons who had been discharged from Hospitals as incurable, and yet by perseverance they have been made as sound as they were the day they were born by this incomparable Ointment. For pimples, blotch es, scald heads, and scornatic humours, it is equally efficacious.
